Mike Harding has been described by Billy Connolly as "the funniest man in England" and is widely acknowledged as "the grandfather of alternative comedy".

Now, after 15 years concentrating on writing and broadcasting, fell-walking and fly fishing, Mike Harding is back on the road!

With a couple of guitars and more than forty years of material to draw on you are warmly welcomed to join Mike for an evening of silly songs, daft stories and the odd comic monologue.
